TESTIMONIAL

DR. Phil Feldman

Editor in Chief Project Innovation

I have partnered with JATSTECH since 2014. I publish three quarterly journals and JATSTECH manages production, fulfillment, and customer service. They have helped me significantly reduce my production costs, as well as migrate my digital journals to a new online platform. They always provide excellent and prompt customer service. I highly recommend their services.

Dr. Safwan Ahmad Khan

Assistant Editor Journal of Neonatal Surgery

We have hired the services of JATSTECH since 2016. Our team is publishing three quarterly journals and JATSTECH manages the conversion from PDF or Word to XML format in accordance with the requirements and nomenclature of PubMed Central®. They have been excellent in their work. Their customer service is very rapid. We recommend the precise and accurate services of JatsTech

Dr. Peter Zajac

Chief Editor, Potravinarstvo Slovak Journal of Food Sciences

JatsTech Services are absolutely good as well as their price is low but their work is quality wise absolutely good. We recommend their services to other authors
